

Kyle Guerrant, MSW

MDE Liaison

Kyle received his BA in Psychology (Child Development) from Long Island University and his MSW from the University of Michigan. Mr. Guerrant has been a strong leader and advocate in youth health and safety issues in community-based non-profits, local schools, and state government for the last 10 years.

Currently, he is the Director of the Coordinated School Health and Safety Programs unit at the Michigan Department of Education. For the past five years, Mr. Guerrant and his team have been charged with improving the health and educational outcomes of Michigan youth through the implementation of Coordinated School Health initiatives. Previously, Mr. Guerrant served as the Acting Manager of the Title IV Safe and Drug Free Schools Program in the Office of Drug Control Policy at the Michigan Department of Community Health.

Kyle plays an active role in his community, serving on numerous Boards, including the Lansing Area AIDS Network and the Michigan Organization on Adolescent Sexual Health.
