

Nicole Speck, MS, RN, FNP-BC

President-Elect

Nicole Speck is a nurse practitioner with St. John Providence Health System. She is a school-based nurse practitioner in Hazel Park Michigan, and has a significant client population of students with special health care needs, including cognitive, physical and emotional impairments. She has been in school-based health care for 10 years and is honored to be a part of SCHA-MI.